I believe that the Morse Code requirement should be retained for both General and Extra class licensees, and that the requirement for the Extra class license should be at least 13 WPM.